Obituary for Caroline Johnson-Challeen

Mrs. A. M. Challeen of Maple Ridge died Wednesday about 6 p.m. of childbirth. She was an estimable woman and Mr. Challeen has the heartfelt sympathy of his many friends and acquaintances.

----Rush City Post, May 18, 1894

Last Saturday the funeral services of Mrs. A. M. Challeen took place at two p.m. at her late home in Stanchfield, Minn., and was very largely attended, quite a number of business friends and old acquaintances of her husband in the village attending. Rev. A. J. Johnson officiated. The pallbearers were Messrs. A. Sutherland, N. Olson, Alfred Anderson, I. E. Julin, A. Nystrom and A. Holmgren.

The deceased was 34 years of age and besides her husband leaves two sons 3½ and 5½ years of age.

The death was so sudden and unlooked for that the husband is hardly able to believe that his beloved companion is indeed gone for all time.

----- Rush City Post, May 25, 1894

A. M. Challeen-Sharp Marriage

CHALEEN--SHARP

This Estimable Couple were Married Wednesday in St. Paul.

MARRIED:-At the home of the officiating minister, 15 Inglehart St., St. Paul, at high noon on the 12th inst; by the Rev. C. C. B. Duncan, Mr. A. M. Chaleen of this County, and Miss Mattie Sharp of this city.

There were but few who witnessed the ceremony by which the loving hearts were united. The bride is one of the choice ladies of our city, wholehearted and true. Her presence and genial smile that has for so long been a benediction in the Grant House will be much missed, but what is Rush City's loss and the loss to the Grant House will be great gain to the community in which her lot is now to be cast.

The groom--well, everybody knows Magnus. He is one of the best bustlers in this part of the state. In fact Magnus would make a good living where others would fail to find pin money. He has a nice house and is comfortably provided with this world's goods. May success follow them, and say, Magnus, don't forget the E.B's or a bottle of wine.

They went to Denver, Col. on a brief visit to relatives of the bride.

-----Rush City Post, Jun 14, 1895

Ad in Rush City Post, October 2,1896